BY MICHELLE BROWN

Jupiter resident Gordon Martin and his wife, Cheri, have devoted themselves to volunteering for and contributing to Place of Hope and Villages of Hope since moving to the area in 2006.

Now, Martin is using his enthusiasm for helping local children in need to be chairman Place of Hope's/Villages of Hope's $7.25 million Hope for the Future capital campaign.

His chairmanship was announced at the Hope for the Future campaign update luncheon on Oct. 10 at Trevini Ristorante in Palm Beach.

Martin brings outstanding leadership experience, as well as a passion for helping abused and neglected children, to the campaign. With more than 20 years of Wall Street banking experience, he recently retired as CFO of NASDAQ.

In addition, the Martins have played an integral part in the creation of Joann's Cottage Children's Shelter and Maternity Home, a primary component of the Hope for the Future Campaign. Cheri Martin is co-chairwoman along with Alex Delange for the Third Annual Hope Ball, scheduled for Feb. 6 at The Breakers.
